

Development Series Opportunity
SEHD Study Beyond

Posted:	March 6, 2024
Description:	The SEHD Study Beyond program is designed to provide current SEHD employees with financial assistance to travel beyond the traditional or virtual classroom setting to gain knowledge in areas related to Public Health. Travel destinations may be domestic or international.
Stipend:	-Variable, depending on relevance and applicability to Public Health. -Applicants should request the stipend amount based on the deliverables of the project (see attached “SEHD Workforce Development Series Application - Supplemental Information” form).
Expectations:	-As part of the application, participants should submit a proposal of a project plan that will impact the SEHD. Examples include modifying a process, creating a product, or providing training, with the goal of improving the work of the organization. -Upon completion of the study, participants will use research and collected data to review, adjust and implement the project.
Minimum Requirements:	-Must be an employee in good standing. -Proposed projects should be in conjunction with a formal educational institution.
To Apply:	Complete SEHD Workforce Development Series Application and Supplemental Information forms.
Due:	Ongoing